

Title: Program & Engagement Intern

Employer Name: South Carolina Interfaith Power and Light (SCIPL)

Linked Contact: Alecia Brewster

No of Openings: 2

Days/hours and duration of job: PT Fall, PT Spring, PT/FT Summer

Wage/Salary: Stipend

Start Date: Beginning of semester

End Date: End of semester

Class Level Requested: Freshman - Senior

Description: South Carolina Interfaith Power and Light (SCIPL) is inspired by diverse faith perspectives to care for the Earth and all its inhabitants by engaging people of faith to work together for a just and sustainable future. SCIPL works to educate, engage, and activate communities of faith throughout South Carolina to address climate and environmental justice issues.

Learning Opportunities:

1. Learning more about faith community development and nonprofit organizations, programs and resources.
2. Identifying earthcare and justice messages that resonate with various religions represented across South Carolina.
3. Learning the science of mitigating climate change and advocating for policies that advance clean energy, energy efficiency and environmental justice.

Duties/Projects: Duties will include:

1. Assisting with program marketing and implementation.
2. Participating in educational and networking calls and webinars.
3. Planning social media posts and other print media.

Qualifications: Must be comfortable interacting with people of all faiths and cultures, and project no biases. Must have good phone and interpersonal skills. Interested in learning more about climate change, climate justice, sustainability and land stewardship. Proactive and interested in learning and growing spiritually and professionally. Passion for justice, equity, diversity, inclusion and environmental stewardship. Comfortable working remotely, and ability to self-motivate. Self-starter and organized.

Application Instructions: The Internship Office can assist you with preparing your resume and cover letter and review your materials prior to applying. Unless indicated otherwise, application deadlines are indicated below:

- Fall Semester - prior to August 31
- Spring Semester - prior to October 31
- Summer - prior to March 28

Please tailor your cover letter to each internship and email your materials to the contact or upload them to the link provided below. Please copy the Internship Office on your application materials at internship@furman.edu and indicate in the subject line which internship you are applying for (Fall, Spring or Summer).